

Land Acknowledgment

This worshipping assembly gathers on the traditional lands of the first people of Tacoma, the Nisqually, Puyallup, Squaxin Island, and Steilacoom peoples who have lived here for millennia. We honor with gratitude the Puget Sound Salish tribes who have cared for this land, its waters, and its many creatures.

The Commemoration of Tabitha/Dorcas of Joppa, Co-Worker with the Apostles
The 114th Convention of the Diocese of Olympia
Tacoma Convention Center

Tabitha of Joppa

Tabitha, also known by her Greek name Dorcas, already had a reputation for being a woman of good works and charity before Peter arrived in Joppa to preach the Gospel (Acts 9:36). The scriptures mention that many widows had benefitted from her work in making them clothes. Their desire to show Peter examples was both a testament to her charity and perhaps also the level of craftsmanship with which she made them.

Perhaps due to the reputation that the apostles had as wonder workers, when Tabitha died her friends called for Peter to come see her. This story is likely intended to recall the story of Jesus healing the young girl in Luke 8:41-56. This healing of life performed for Tabitha through Peter caused many in the town to believe in Jesus. Like many healing stories recorded in Acts, it was a confirmation that the message was true and that the apostles did indeed speak for God.

Psalm 141:1-3, 8ab Domine, clamavi

The cantor sings the antiphon, then all sing the antiphon wherever it is noted.

Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as in - cense, the lift - ing up of my hands as the even - ing sac - ri - fice.

O LORD, I call to you; come to me quickly; *
hear my voice when I cry to you. Antiphon

Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as incense, *
the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Antiphon

Set a watch before my mouth, O LORD, and guard the door of my lips; *
let not my heart incline to any evil thing. Antiphon

My eyes are turned to you, Lord GOD; *
in you I take refuge. Antiphon

Silence and stillness

Lesson Ephesians 4:1-6

A reading from the letter to the Ephesians.

I, therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace: there is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

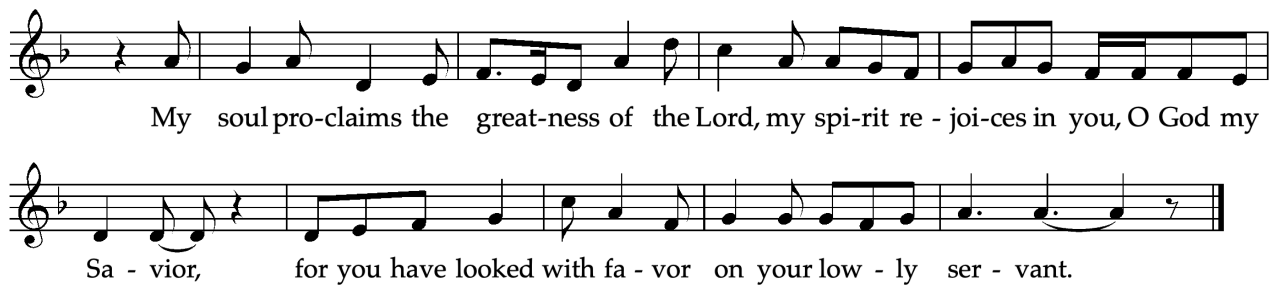

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able

The Song of Mary Magnificat

The cantor introduces the Antiphon. All repeat it. The cantor sings the verses, all singing the antiphon as indicated.

My soul pro-claims the great-ness of the Lord, my spi-rit re - joi-ces in you, O God my Sa - vior, for you have looked with fa - vor on your low - ly ser - vant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed: * you, the Almighty, have done great things for me,
and holy is your name.

You have mercy on those who fear you *
from generation to generation. Antiphon

You have shown strength with your arm *
and scattered the proud in their conceit, Casting down the mighty from their thrones *
and lifting up the lowly. Antiphon

You have filled the hungry with good things *
and sent the rich away empty.
You have come to the help of your servant Israel, * for you have remembered your promise of mercy, the promise made to our forebears, * to Abraham and his children forever. Antiphon

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,*
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. Antiphon

Lesson Acts 9:36-42

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them, and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.

Thanks be to God.

The Song of Simeon Nunc dimittis

1. Lord, you now have set your ser - vant free to go in peace as you have prom - ised; 2. For these eyes of mine have seen the Sa - vior, whom you have prepared for all the world to see: 3. A Light to en - lighten the na - tions, and the glory of your peo - ple Is - ra - el.

4. Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spi - rit:

The Apostles' Creed

Leader: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Leader: Let us pray for those who have been baptized in this diocese during the past year as their names are spoken aloud by a representative from each parish.

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, by your death you took away the sting of death: Grant to us your servants so to follow in faith where you have led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in you and wake up in your likeness; for your tender mercies' sake. Amen.

Most Holy God, who raised from the dead your servant Tabitha to display your power and confirm that your Son is Lord: Grant us your grace, that, aided by her prayers and example, we may be given a new life in you, to do works pleasing in your sight; through Jesus Christ your Son our Savior; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Glory to God whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine:
Glory to God from generation to generation in the Church,
and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

The Commemoration of Alfred, Monarch and Promoter of the Faith

Alfred the Great

Alfred, alone of all English rulers, has been called “the Great” because of his courage and Christian virtues. His biographer Asser wrote of his commitment to a life of prayer influenced by the Benedictine presence in England: “He learned the celebration of the Hours, and after that he gathered psalms and many prayers in one book which he carried with him everywhere by day and night, inseparable from himself, in all of the doings of this present life.” In his later years, Alfred sought to repair the damage that the Viking invasions had inflicted upon culture and learning, especially among the parish clergy. With the help of scholars from Wales and the European continent, he supervised translations into English of important classics of theology and history, including works by Gregory the Great, Augustine of Hippo, and the Venerable Bede. Alfred died on October 26, 899, and was buried in Winchester.

Processional Hymn

1 King of glo - ry, King of peace, I will love thee;
2 Where - fore with my ut - most art, I will sing thee;
3 Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee;

Tenor or soprano ad libitum

3 Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee;

and that love may nev - er cease, I will move thee.
and the cream of all my heart, I will bring thee.
in my heart, though not in heaven, I can raise thee.

in my heart, though not in heaven, I can raise thee.

Thou hast grant-ed my re - quest,      thou hast heard me;
 Though my sins a - gainst me cried,      thou didst clear me;
 Small it is in this poor sort      to en - roll thee;

Small it is in this poor sort      to en - roll thee;

thou didst note my work - ing breast,      thou hast spared me.
 and a - lone, when they re - plied,      thou didst hear me.
 e'en e - ter - ni - ty's too short      to ex - tol thee.

e'en e - ter - ni - ty's too short      to ex - tol thee.

Opening Acclamation

[+] Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

Glory to God for ever and ever.

The Collect

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O God, who called your servant Alfred to an earthly throne that he might advance your heavenly kingdom and gave him zeal for your church and love for your people: Grant that we, inspired by his example and prayers, may remain steadfast in the work you have given us to do for the building up of your reign of love; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Almighty and everliving God, source of all wisdom and understanding, be present with those who take counsel in this Diocese of Olympia for the renewal and mission of your Church. Teach us in all things to seek first your honor and glory. Guide us to perceive what is right, and grant us both the courage to pursue it and the grace to accomplish it; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please be seated.

Una lectura del libro de Deuteronomio.

Observad el día de reposo y santificadlo, como os ha mandado el Señor vuestro Dios. Seis días trabajarás y harás toda tu obra. Pero el séptimo día es sábado para Jehová tu Dios; No harás ningún trabajo, ni tú, ni tu hijo, ni tu hija, ni tu esclavo, ni tu esclava, ni tu buey, ni tu asno, ni ninguno de tus animales, ni el extranjero residente en tus ciudades, para que tu hombre y tu mujer El esclavo puede descansar tan bien como tú. Acuérdate que fuiste esclavo en tierra de Egipto, y el Señor tu Dios te sacó de allí con mano fuerte y brazo extendido; por eso el Señor vuestro Dios os ordenó guardar el día de reposo.

Santa Sabiduría, Santa Palabra.

Gracias a Dios.

First Lesson: Deuteronomy 5:12-15

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

Observe the Sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel Matthew 11:25-30

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor: Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Presider: Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know and make known your Spirit; and through our Advocate, at all times and in all places, may we give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

The Peace

Presider: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Presider: You know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit, you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Collect

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquility the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated

Lesson

A reading from the first letter of Peter.

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word

Thanks be to God.

Blessing of persons elected or appointed to diocesan ministries

Dear friends in Christ, we are all baptized by the one Spirit into one Body, and given gifts for a variety of ministries for the common good. In the presence of this diocesan assembly, will you accept this ministry and commit yourselves to this new trust and responsibility, in the confidence that it comes from God?

The newly-appointed or elected:

Will you endeavor in all things to conduct yourself as a servant of Jesus Christ?

I will, and I ask God to help me.

Will you be faithful, understanding, and loving as you accompany the people among whom you will live and work?

I will, and I ask God to help me.

Almighty God, who has given you the will to do these things, graciously give you the strength and compassion to perform them.

Amen.

Please stand as able

People of God, will you support these servants of Jesus Christ who will minister in this Diocese of Olympia? Will you pray for them, help, and honor them for their work's sake, and in all things strive to live in the peace and unity of Christ?

We will and we ask God to help us.

Let us pray.

Look with favor upon those whom you have called, O God, and grant that they may be so filled with your Holy Spirit that they will minister in their chosen task with joy and steadfast devotion; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Amen.
